This is the temple where Stela 1 was found, an artifact now on display in the British Museum. Based on the stela's inscriptions, it is believed it was brought over to Tulum from a nearby settlement in Tankah during the Classic period. Part of the Tulum Ruins. This Colombian joint turns out Latin American-style hot dogs (with outré toppings like diced pineapple). Our favorite is the zesty Mexican, loaded with salsa verde, melted cheese, crushed potato chips, and squiggles of ketchup and spicy mayo. Without fanfare, this is a bar that welcomes the entire LGBTQ+ family in the heart of the Raval, the historic center of Barcelona. Its friendly and fun atmosphere has led them to celebrate their tenth anniversary in 2021. They offer good food, well-drawn beer, a pleasant terrace and, more than anything else, very good vibes for the entire community. (Pro tip: You can order anything you want of the superb Las Fernández menu and eat it on the La Casa de la Pradera terrace. They're good neighbors!)
